

2018 Free Methodist Chaplain Development Training

June 26–29, 2018 | Asbury Theological Seminary, Wilmore, Kentucky

Join your fellow Chaplains for a time of rest, renewal, and refreshment in the luscious rolling hills of the Bluegrass State. Our prayer is you will leave this time of fellowship receiving not just what you expect but what you need from the Father.

Our featured speaker this year is Dr. Anthony J. Headley.

Dr. Headley is a psychologist and professor of counseling at Asbury Theological Seminary. He received a M.Div. from Asbury Theological Seminary; and a M.S.Ed. in counseling and psychology, M.S. in Family Studies, Certificate in Medical Behavioral Science and Ph.D. in Counseling from the University of Kentucky.

Dr. Headley conducts seminars for clergy and other groups in the United States and internationally. He is the recipient of the University of Kentucky’s Office of Minority Affairs’ Architect of Dream Award. He also received the National Institutes of Mental Health Trainee Award.

Dr. Headley has published several books; his two most recent are Family Crucible: The Influence of Family Dynamics in the Life and Ministry of John Wesley (Wipf and Stock, 2010) and Getting It Right: Christian Perfection and Wesley’s Purposeful List (Emeth Press, 2013).

He and his wife, Adina, have three adult children.

Dr. Headley will be speaking with us about “Flourishing in Ministry.”
