

Happy Thanksgiving from: The Stotts-Godoy Family

Although turkey is not consumed very much in Chile, you can sometimes find frozen ones at the large grocery stores during November. This year, however, we happened to stumble upon a small turkey farm outside Santiago.

Leo will pick out Tom Turkey as we look forward to enjoying the little bird on Saturday, since Thursday is a normal work day here.

As we introduce some Chilean family and friends to North American traditions, what we are looking forward to most is giving THANKS. YOU, our faithful supporters and prayer partners, are at the top of the list! Your generous giving makes it possible ...

- For Fernanda and Pilar (and many, many others!) to hear about Jesus and have the chance to know Him personally.

- For our ICCM sponsorship program to be supervised in countries throughout Central and South America.

- For us to help plant a church in a virtually un-reached part of Santiago, Chile.

- For Latin American children's workers to be equipped and encouraged in their ministry to kids.

Now you see why we are so thankful!

May the Lord bless your generosity, your intercession on our behalf and your continued investment in people whom Jesus loves and for whom He died and rose again.

Happy Thanksgiving from our grateful family to yours!

Your missionaries to Latin America,
Kay Stotts (and family: Leo, Sofia and Benjamín)
