

Beads Empowering Uganda

Women and men in the Jinja Free Methodist Church up-cycle paper into beautiful beads and unique jewelry, expressing incredible creativity. The group continues to train others.

Beads Empowering Uganda chooses the recyclable posters, cuts them in various shapes, rolls them, glues the end, and then dips them in a clear finish three times over the course of 14 days. They do incredible work creating beautiful, lasting beads in almost endless colors.

To see more information and pictures, or to purchase this beautiful jewelry from Uganda, visit shopseedmarket.org.

